The second crop of figs are now ripe and the third crop is coming on nicely.

Water and musk melons are now being brought into town, but we don't get to see any.

First Class dried Peaches are for sale by F. Y. Morse Jr., St. George, Utah.

The onion crop this season is very fair but they are not as large as they have been some years.

Heber C. Atkin, son of William Atkin, left Cedar City on the 6th, enroute for milford. From there he will leave for Chicago on the 9th, with two Car loads of his father's sheep, for that market.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. WM. KEIL, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by J. R. Michels, St. George.

R. G. McQuarrie is having a hay shed erected, so as to guard against loss of hay, by heavy rains, in the future.

Charles Church and wife, of Panguitch, are visiting relatives in this City.

County Clerk, Seth A. Pymm, has issued Marriage License to Mr. Alfred George Partner, aged 21, and Miss Emma Marshal, aged 18, both of Toquerville, Utah. They lately arrived from England.

My little boy, when two years of age, was taken very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered, and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the Remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how good it is, as I do.—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Marion Co., Florida. For sale by J. R. Michels, St. George.

Haden H. Church is again in our midst. He left Panguitch and went around by the way of DeLamar taking a load of freight to that mining camp.

Travelers desiring Hay, Grain and Stabling, can find first class accommodations at William Lang's, near east part of city.

An innumerable host of flies are all over the country, and many of them bite worse than mosquitoes.

Elisha Cragun is erecting a cooper shop, at his residence and hopes to be able to make to order, all the molasses barrels that may be needed this season.

As we go to press we learn that mother Smoot died last evening and the funeral is being held today.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physician have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by J. R. Michels, St. George.

Found, near the Printing office, a pair of shoes tied up in an white cloth. Owner will find them at the T. O.

The late rains have done a good deal of good throughout the northwestern part of our county, even extending into Nevada, reviving the grass so that it is growing luxuriantly, and stockmen are feeling very grateful. The only trouble is that sheepmen act as though they own the whole country, and, stockmen say that their rights are not respected as much by the sheepmen as they ought to be. We wish this matter could be adjusted so that each could have fair play.

Cash paid for all kinds of hides by William Atkin.

Miss Rose Rencher, of Grass Valley, is visiting in this city.

Fine Germade for sale at Booth's store.

Miss Ruth McQuarrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McQuarrie, has just returned from a protracted visit to Grass Valley.

A refreshing rain visited Price and Bloomington last Sunday afternoon, while a dust and wind storm gathered east of Price, in the vicinity of Fort Pearce wash, and traveled in a circuitous route, striking St. George and going off in the neighborhood of Santa Clara and to the West Mountains. A mild rain also passed over St. George.

Booth's teams leave for Milford on Monday the 10th and will return on the 20th of August, loaded with common sense articles and everyday necessities of life.

Only three weeks ago we announced that the wife of Joseph T. Atkin had presented him with a 13 pound daughter and jokingly remarked that father and daughter were fat and hearty and mother doing well. How little did we think that in so short a time the community would be called upon to mourn the loss of the mother and wife, but we know not what a day may bring forth, nor the purposes of the almighty.

It is with sorrow we chronicle the death of Eleanor Walker Atkin, who was born in St. George, Utah on the 3rd day of December, 1870, and was married to Joseph T. Atkin, in St. George Temple, on the 26th day of February, 1890. She was the mother of two sons and two daughters; was an affectionate wife, a loving mother a true Latter-day Saint, and was respected by all by whom she was surrounded.

She passed to that great beyond, surrounded by her husband and family, and loving friends, at 11 o'clock, Sunday, August 2, and was buried in the St. George Cemetery on August 3, 1896.

The funeral services were held in the St. George Tabernacle, at 10 a. m., Bishop Andrus presiding.

Prest. A. W. Ivins said he had known the deceased from childhood and bore testimony to her kind and true worth spoke of the blessings that the gospel brings to the true Latter-day Saints, and gave many comforting words to the bereaved husband and family.

Elder Thomas Judd, Bishop James Andrus and elder Thomas P. Cottam all spoke words of comfort.

The kindness of the whole people to the family all through the sickness, death and funeral of sister Atkin will always be remembered by the family and friends of the deceased.
